Chapter 1

HICCUP POV:

It has been a week since Ryker and Viggo died. I do regret it a little bit because it didn't have to end in death. I sat up and yawned. Astrid threw open the door and ran up to me.

"WHAT, IS SOME ONE HERE" I yelled.

"Dragon Hunters, Viggo is looking for you" said Astrid.

I was shocked. I put down the tail fin and followed Astrid to the docks. I got on Toothless and Astrid rode on Stormfly. We made it and landed. Ryker was here two. I guess Viggo and Ryker made up after that whole fight. I could care less about that. I got off of Toothless.

"What do you want Viggo" I asked angrily.

"Well Hiccup, you never answered my question" said Viggo.

I was confused.

"What question" I asked.

Toothless growled a little.

"Maces and Talons" said Viggo.

We were all surprised.

"You were serious" I asked nervously.

"Of course Hiccup, but I understand if you want to stay here. I'll take the dragon eye and be on my way" said Viggo.

I frowned.

"We are not letting you take it" I said.

"Well I suppose I could leave it here but you will have to go to the tribe of the Whispering Tree's with me Hiccup" said Viggo.

I know Viggo wants more then a simple game of maces and talons. I pulled the gang away and talked with them.

"Wait, you can't actually think about going" said Fishlegs nervously.

"Well Fishlegs I am, just to find out what he wants. While we are gone I want you to find the dragon eye and hide it" I said.

"And what if this is a trap? At least let us go with you" said Astrid crossing her arms.

"No, I'll be fine Astrid" I said.

"Fine, but you better come back" said Astrid.

We walked back to the dragon trappers.

"Okay Viggo, I'll go. I just need to grab something quick" I said.

"Of course. Take your time Hiccup. Oh and make sure you bring everything you need. It will take a week to sail there" said Viggo.

I went back to my hut and started packing. Astrid helped me pack. She gave me some knifes and axes but I only took two knifes and my flame sword to make her stop talking. I finished and walked back to the docks. I enjoyed the walk as much as I can. I won't be here for a week after all. I made it and said goodbye to the gang. I walked on the ship with Toothless. We mostly stayed silent and didn't talk to anyone. I didn't see why Viggo even needs me. It's maces and talons. He can win with out my help. Now I wish I did bring the gang. Astrid and I could probably be romantic like always, Fishlegs and I would probably geek out, and Snotlout and the twins.....well, it's better than being alone like I am right now. I signed. I got on Toothless and we flew around the sky making sure we can still see the boat. I was actually half expecting the hunters to shoot at me and Toothless and I think they were expecting me to attack the ship. I chuckled a little. How ever I know to not get use to this. After this is all over we will go back to fighting like before. I jumped off of Toothless and opened my flight suit so we can fly beside each other. We flew until the cooks said that lunch was ready. I landed and put the wings away. Every one ate and talked but I didn't have anyone to talk to I just feed Toothless and then sat and ate.

Chapter 2

HICCUP POV:

A week later we made it. We started getting off the ship. There were other tribes here as well.

"Hiccup, I'm surprised to see you here" said Mala walking up to me.

"Oh ya, I was sorta invited by Viggo" I said nervously.

"Viggo" Throk said surprised.

"It was this or give him the dragon eye" I explained.

"What is the dragon eye" asked Mala.

"It has information about dragons and is very dangerous in the wrong hands" I said.

"Well, good luck and perhaps we will play against each other" said Mala.

We waved goodbye and they left. At least I know some one here. I know Mala is not happy I came with Viggo but I'm sure she understands. Toothless and I walked with the dragon hunters. Mainly cause I didn't want to get lost or have them chase me or something.

"Welcome" a voice whispered.

I jumped with a small yelp.

"Relax Hiccup, it's the chief of the whispering tree tribe" said Viggo walking up to us.

"Uh hi" I said.

"The games are about to start" The chief whispered.

"Come on Hiccup, you don't want to miss this" said Viggo walking away.

I followed him.

"So how does this all work, how do you know who wins" I asked.

"Simple Hiccup, you keep playing other teams until you lose. When that happens you are out" said Viggo.

"And you invited me because" I asked.

"I think we will make a great team" said Viggo.

"You two are this way" a boy whispered.

I find it weird how they all whisper but I guess their name makes sense. We followed him and saw a bunch of teams started playing. The boy lead us to a small table with the maces and talons board. We started playing other teams. Viggo was right. We make a great team. Not sure if that's good or bad however. It was the last game. Viggo and I were playing against the last team. Mala, Throk, and some other people were watching. I thought for a bit.

"Okay, let's move the traitor.....here" I said pointing to the spot.

"No, leave the traitor, move the long ship" said Viggo.

I looked at him confused.

"I know what I'm doing Hiccup" said Viggo.

I moved the long ship. The other team moved their hunter away from the chief. Viggo used our hunter to kill the other team's chief.

"And the winner is Hiccup and Viggo" the chief of the whispering trees whispered loudly.

Every one cheered.

"YES" I said happily.

Toothless did a gummy smile. Viggo grabbed me by surprised and kissed me on the lips. I was shocked. Viggo pulled away and the crowd was silent.

"Ya I should, go back....to the edge" I awkwardly said.

"Of course but it will take a few days to fly there" said Viggo awkwardly.

I have to admit that was strange. I said good bye to Mala and Throk and left. They were also confused by the kiss. I just hope the gang doesn't find out. We sailed back to the edge. I avoided Viggo the whole week and Ryker won't stop staring at me. I wonder if that kiss met anything. I signed annoyed. Of course it didn't. Why would it mean anything to Viggo. He is Viggo. I made it back to the edge at night. I assume the gang is sleeping and I don't want to wake them. I entered my hut and climbed into bed. I can't stop thinking about that kiss. Maybe Viggo wants me to be confused. I don't know. I have to go to sleep. I will think about this all tomorrow. I closed my eyes and fell asleep.

Chapter 3

HICCUP POV:

I woke up the next morning and went to see the gang at the club house.

"Hey gang" I said as I entered.

"Dang it Tuffnut won the bet" said Ruffnut annoyed.

"Uh what" I asked.

Thor what did those two.....special people do now?

"The twins made a bet about what happened to you" said Snotlout.

"When did you get back anyway" asked Heather.

"Last night, I didn't want to wake any one" I said.

"So Viggo actually let you leave with out anything" asked Astrid.

"Well" I said nervously rubbing the back of my neck.

The gang was silent. I put my hand down and took a deep breath.

"Mala and Throk were there and saw Viggo kiss me on the lips" I said with my eyes closed.

The twins were shocked, Astrid nearly choked on her food, Heather dropped the plate she was about to put on the table, Snotlout was shocked and then burst out laughing, and Fishlegs almost fainted and screamed. I open my eyes and stared at the gang.

"Wait, Viggo kissed you" asked Fishlegs.

"Ye....yes" I stuttered.

"Why would he do that, that's Astrid's job" said Snotlout.

He has a point.

"Yes I know. It was so sudden and we won the last game" I said sadly.

"Wait so you and Viggo won and you brought nothing back with you" asked Tuffnut.

Chicken spoke.

"I didn't say...why does that matter" I asked a little angry.

"Then where is the prize, unless Viggo kissing you is the prize" said Ruffnut.

I signed annoyed and left the club house.

"What crawled up his tunic" asked Tuffnut.

I walked to the stables with Toothless following me. Some reason I can't get that kiss out of my mind. I mean I never felt that way with Astrid when we kissed but I still enjoyed all of them. I'm not gay. I like girls and some one can't just become gay unless.....no.....NO. I am not bisexual. I am straight and like girls. They are, girls and Astrid is the one for me. Not....Viggo. I signed and sat at the edge with my feet dangling off the edge. Astrid landed on Stormfly and sat next to me.

"Hey, you skipped breakfast" said Astrid setting a plate of food on my lap.

"I wasn't that hungry" I lied.

"Hiccup" said Astrid annoyed.

"Astrid I can't get the kiss out of my head. It has to mean something and I don't see how you are okay with it" I said looking at her.

"Hiccup it was just a kiss. It could of been from the excitement of winning. We never really see Viggo happy so maybe it's normal for him to kiss who ever is closet to him and besides, remember when I said I would kiss Snotlout on the lips back when you and Fishlegs made the terror mail" asked Astrid.

I smiled and did a small laugh.

"Ya, you still didn't do that" I said.

"Look my point is I was thinking about what I said and I couldn't get it out of my head for a year" said Astrid.

"How did you get rid of it" I asked.

"I just moved on. Plus I know Snotlout is not my type. He's too much of a" Astrid started.

"Fuckboy" I said interrupting her.

"I was gonna say womanizer but yes" said Astrid.

We sat in silence. Astrid stood up.

"I'm gonna go check on the gang and you better eat that plate of food I brought you" said Astrid getting on Stormfly.

"I will, thank you Astrid" I said looking back at her.

She flew off. I turned back to the sea and started eating breakfast.

Chapter 4

HICCUP POV:

I finished breakfast and put my plate away in the club house to be cleaned. I still can't get the kiss out of my head. I decided to go to my hut and work on something. That should take my mind off of Viggo and the kiss. It was perfect. I tried to make a few adjustments on my flame sword. It should help. It didn't. I still think about Viggo. The good news is I know where his base is. The bad news is I'm going alone. I don't want the gang there with me. They wouldn't understand. I'm might be bisexual. I guess it doesn't matter that I'm bisexual. I already can't concieve. I only know because Astrid and I decided we were ready and tried everything. I mean everything, but it didn't work. Astrid was tested by Gothi and confirmed she can become pregnant so I'm the issue but my dad doesn't know. How am I suppose to tell him he will never have a grandchild? I signed and got my shield and flame sword. Just in case. I left a note in my hut in case the gang looks for me later. I can't tell them I'm going to visit Viggo. They will think I'm crazy and Astrid will probably lock me up if I don't tell them why I'm going ALONE. I got on Toothless and we took off. We made it and were shot down with a net. We crashed and the trappers ran up to us while others made sure no more were coming. Toothless growled at them. Viggo walked up to us. I blushed. He looked so cute.

"Bring them to my hut" said Viggo.

He left. Even his butt is cute. Wait why am I looking at his butt? It's a butt. The net was removed and we were taken to Viggo's hut.

"Viggo doesn't allow dragons in his hut so the nightfury will stay outside" said a trapper.

I said nothing and entered Viggo's hut. He sat at his table. Don't blush or get nervous. This is just a simple meeting with my enemy who happens to be my crush.

"Have a seat" said Viggo.

I sat down and looked at Viggo.

"I assume there is a reason you came to see me" said Viggo.

"Was the kiss a trick or something because it worked. I can't get it out of my head" I said.

Viggo smiled.

"Actually it was a accident but I'm glad to see you feel the same way about me. I have loved you since I first laid eyes on you" said Viggo.

I crossed my arms.

"Oh really, you know you are a great liar. How do I know you are telling the truth" I asked.

"Do you want me to prove it" asked Viggo.

"Yes, do what ever you like" I said.

I became a little nervous. I just told Viggo he can do ANYTHING he wants with me. Viggo got up and picked me up. He laid me on his bed and started to kiss me. I was surprised but kissed back. We ended up doing it. I woke up the next morning naked with Viggo also naked. He had his head on my stomach and rubbing it.

"What are you doing" I asked.

"You might have a rare condition Hiccup. There are some cases where a man can become pregnant" said Viggo.

I was surprised.

"But I was born with a penis" I said.

"That doesn't matter. You can become pregnant if you have a uterus" said Viggo.

"And you think I might be pregnant" I asked.

Chapter 5

VIGGO POV:

"You have a uterus hole. Do you ever experience some kind of period each month" asked Viggo.

I thought for a bit. I do. I never told any one but when it first happened I went to Gothi with Gobber in secret because I didn't want my dad to worry and we were busy with the dragon killing training. Gobber agreed to keep it a secret from my father as long as I tell him and Gothi told me how periods work. I never told my dad though.

"Well, yes. Every month. Why" I asked.

"I only know about this because some of the dragon trappers have had babies together" said Viggo.

(You ever notice how they are ALL guys)

"Wait, so if I'm pregnant how are we suppose to explain that to every one" I asked.

"I'm sure you have told your father about your periods" said Viggo.

"Uh, no" I said.

"Well you should. However if you decide you aren't ready then the dragon trappers have a way of abortion" said Viggo.

"I'M NOT KILLING OUR CHILD VIGGO" I yelled.

"It's just a option Hiccup. I am willing to raise this child" said Viggo.

"It won't be a dragon trapper either" I said.

"We will discuss all this later. You should probably head back before your friends notice you are gone" said Viggo.

"Right" I said.

I got up and got dressed. I hugged Viggo good bye and left. I flew back to the edge. How am I suppose to explain this? Half way there I then noticed something in the sky.

"Is that the gang" I asked.

We flew up to each other.

"What are you guys doing flying this early" I asked.

"We came to save you. Ryker sent us a terror mail saying Viggo kidnapped you last night" said Heather.

"Well, he did but I broke free" I lied nervously.

"Come on, you can explain at the edge" said Astrid.

We flew back and I figured I will make up some elaborate lie. What's something believable? I tried to think as we flew back. We made it and had breakfast as I explain. I just told them I woke up in a cell and broke out.

"Are you sure you are okay" asked Fishlegs.

"Ya, I just feel a little tired" I said.

Pregnancy can't be showing already right?

I can sleep after breakfast.

"I think we should have Gothi check on you just be sure Viggo didn't poison you or anything. He could of done something" said Heather.

"Plus it won't hurt to go see everyone at Berk" said Astrid.

We ate and then headed to Berk. I felt extremely tired even though I napped on the way here. We walked to Gothi's. With my dad being chief I'm sure he heard the second we landed. We made it to Gothi's and she started running test.

"Hiccup, I heard you weren't feeling well" said my dad as him and Gobber walked up to us.

"I feel fine dad. I'm just tired" I said.

Gothi thought for a bit. She wrote in the sand.

"What is she saying" asked my dad.

"He, are you sure Gothi? I'm mean he is only 18" said Gobber.

"What did she say" I asked.

Gothi wrote in the sand.

"I can't say that. Stoick will kill him. And how are you so sure" asked Gobber.

Gothi wrote in the sand.

"What do you mean the spirits told you? That doesn't mean that Viggo and Hiccup are actually having a child together. Oh" said Gobber.

"THEY WHAT" my dad screamed for the whole village to hear.

Chapter 6

HICCUP POV:

Everyone was shocked. My father was also angry and extremely confused. I thought he would be happy to have grand children. Although to be fair he would probably prefer it not be with Viggo.

"But Hiccup can't concieve. We tried" said Astrid.

"I think it's that rare condition" said Gobber.

"And what rare condition would that be" asked my dad.

"Uh, can we talk in private dad? It's kinda personal body issues" I said.

"Alright, every one else leave" said my dad.

The gang left and it was just Gothi, me, Gobber, and my dad.

"There is a rare condition were men can become pregnant. Hiccup can't make others pregnant but he can become pregnant" said Gobber.

"Alright, but how is Viggo the father" asked my dad.

"Uh, you're not upset" I asked.

"I can't argue with how the Gods made your body. Plus I want grandkids. So I will just have to accept it" said my dad.

"Oh, well um, you see" I said nervously.

How do I have the talk with my father? I don't know how to explain that I had sex with someone. I would rather confess to wetting the bed. Whether it's pee or cut would be better then this.

"You had sex I assume" said my dad.

"Yes" I said nervously.

"Well, for now go home and rest" said my dad.

I went home and told the gang that I was pregnant and will explain later. I went up to my room and relaxed in my bed. Nine months of being pregnant. This is going to be interesting. I slept till Astrid woke me up.

"Hiccup I know you are resting but I got a letter from the wingmaidens. The dragon hunters attacked their island and they need help so the gang and I are going and we need to protect the edge" said Astrid.

"Okay, just let me satle up Toothless" I said standing up.

"No, you aren't going" said Astrid.

"And why is that" I asked crossing my arms.

"Hiccup you are pregnant. I know it's only the early stages but still. You have to rest. What if the dragon hunters attack and cause you to have a miscarriage" asked Astrid.

"Astrid please, I need to go. I can rest at the edge and the dragon trappers will be gone by the time we get there" I said.

Astrid signed.

"Fine, but I'm not responsible for anything. And you should tell your dad" said Astrid.

I agreed and told my dad. I only said I'm heading back to the edge and promised I will rest. Gothi also gave me book on the pregnance and what to eat and stuff. We left and made it to the wingsmaiden island.

"Thank the Gods you are here" said Atali.

"What did they want" asked Heather.

"We don't know. It was more like a hit and run. They only destroyed buildings. Ryker said he wanted to find Hiccup" said Atali.

"Did he say why" I asked.

"No, he just said you were in Viggo's hut last night and there was weird moans and screams. He demands to know what happened but Viggo won't tell him" said Atali.

I froze and tried not to blush as I remembered the stuff that happened. Viggo was better then Astrid. Wait but that means Ryker heard us. He heard Viggo go down on me. That is so embarrasing.

"Was anyone injured in the attack" asked Astrid as she tried to change the subject.

I'm sure she will ask about last night later.

"No, I think they just want your guys attention. They might attack more villages. We should make sure they are okay and warn them" said Atali.

"Why would Ryker want Hiccup though? I mean aside from him being the leader of us" said Ruffnut.

Chapter 7

HICCUP POV:

Astrid and I flew to the defenders of the wing island. I also am extremely tired. I want to nap now and when we get there.

"So, what happened last night" asked Astrid.

"Uh" I started.

"Hiccup you can tell me. What happened to you at the dragon trapper base anyway. You said you were kidnapped. Why" asked Astrid.

"Well, I uh. Can you promise you won't tell the others" I asked.

"I promise" said Astrid.

"I lied. I wasnt kidnapped. I went to go see Viggo. We had sex and Viggo is the father" I said nervously.

"WAIT YOU DID IT. WITH VIGGO" Astrid yelled.

"Yes, it was idea. I just agreed to it. When we won he kissed me on the lips. In front of Mala and Throk I couldn't stop thinking about it. He was just, I think I fell in love" I said.

Stormfly flew infront of Toothless and I.

"Wait, you love Viggo. Our enemy who traps dragons" said Astrid.

"I know, I couldn't stop thinking about the kiss. Viggo said he had love me since he first saw me. I didn't believe it so to prove it he, you know" I said.

"Hiccup I'm glad to see you are moving on from us, but to Viggo" said Astrid.

"Astrid I know. It's complicated. I will talk to Viggo later about everything" I said.

"Do you really think he will accept the kid" asked Astrid.

"Ya, he said that some of the dragon trappers have kids together" I said.

"I can see that. They are all guys. Heather told me she was the only girl there" said Astrid.

"Well that sounds uncomfortable" I said.

"I'm sure it was. However we should probably keep the baby and loving Viggo a secret" said Astrid.

"Why the baby" I asked.

Stormfly flew out of the way and we started flying again.

"Well you know, the wingmaidens have different marriage then us. I don't agree with it but if they are, ugh old fashion, then how do they feel about gay couples? Some places still exacute you at stake" said Astrid.

She has a point.

"Okay but I don't know anything about pregnancy. I'll have to read the book that Gothi gave me" I said.

"Well anyway how was he" asked Astrid.

"Uh, what" I asked.

"Viggo, was he good" asked Astrid.

"Ya, um, he was okay" I said.

I adjusted my sitting passion.

"Just okay" asked Astrid.

"Astrid do we really have to talk about this? Viggo was great but I'm not exactly open to talk about it" I said.

"I'm just saying. If you are going to be with him then it would make sense that you find him better then me" said Astrid.

"But wouldn't you want to be better then Viggo" I asked.

"No, I would for my future husband but it would be better for you if you found Viggo better because you are with him" said Astrid.

"Ya but we aren't dating yet" I said nervously.

This is really uncomfortable.

"Just listen" said Astrid angrily.

"My point is that you and Viggo are together. Do you really want to be thinking about how I would be better in the middle of it" asked Astrid.

I thought about it. That would be weird and awful. Plus I would probably go back to Astrid.

"Okay but since we are talking about Viggo then I have to ask why does Ryker want me" I asked.

"I don't know. Do you think he knows" asked Astrid.

"Uh probably. He heard us last night. So why would he go far enough to attack other villages. Couldn't he just put another bounty on my head" I asked.

Chapter 8

HICCUP POV:

"It would probably be easier that way. I hope he doesn't do that" said Astrid.

We talked about it till we made it to the defenders of the wing. We landed and found Mala.

"It's always great to see you but might I ask what you are doing here" asked Mala.

"We think the dragon trappers might attack you guys. They already attacked the wingmaidens" said Astrid.

Mala wasn't surprised.

"We know, they sent a terror mail saying that Ryker wants Hiccup" said Mala.

I still don't know why.

"We of course we refused to help so the dragon trappers could be on their way here" said Mala.

We helped the defenders prepare and unsurprisingly Ryker showed up.

"This is your last chance. Hand over Hiccup Haddock or I will have my men destroy this place" said Ryker.

I frowned and ran up to him as Astrid tried to stop me.

"What do you want Ryker" I asked.

"My brother is looking for you" said Ryker.

"Okay, where is here" I asked.

"At home. He doesn't know I came looking for you" said Ryker.

"Why are you looking for me" I asked.

"I want to know what happened in my brothers tent" said Ryker.

I froze. What do I say? Do I tell him? Will he be okay with me carrying his niece or nephew which ever it is?

"Uh" I said.

Does he even know that Viggo is gay?

"Well, there is something you should know about your brother" I said nervously.

Hopefully Viggo doesn't hate me for telling.

"I know my brother is gay. I've seen the nude paintings in his room. The entire fleet knows. Viggo doesn't care to hide it" said Ryker.

I now wonder if Viggo had a boner while I was there. Now that I think about it something was popping out when I begged to get the cure for Astrid. I bet Viggo only poisoned her to get rid of the competition.

"Oh, well. We, did it" I said nervously.

Ryker froze in shock. I waited a minute. He was still frozen.

"Uh, hello" I said.

Ryker was still frozen. Mala walked up to us.

"What happened" she asked.

"He just froze in shock" I said.

"Oh, we have ways to unfreeze him. We will put him in a cell after" said Mala.

They took Ryker away.

"What did you say to him" asked Astrid.

"Just that Viggo and I did it" I said.

"Guess he wasn't excepting that. Does he know about the baby" asked Astrid.

"No, he froze before I could tell him. I don't even know if I should tell him he is going to be a uncle" I said.

"Well you have to tell him. Eventually. He's going to find out one day" said Astrid.

"I know, I just don't know how to tell him. What if he doesn't accept the baby" I asked.

"I don't know, we should tell him later. Have you thought about telling your dad" asked Astrid.

"I already did. Or Gobber did because Gothi somehow knew. Then I had the uncomfortable talk with my dad" I said.

"Well we should talk to Viggo. He can't be a trapper if he plans to raise this baby" said Astrid.

"I know, I just need some time alone to think" I said.

I left to went to the woods. I feel a little tired. I sat down by a tree and tried to think. Viggo and I are now having a child. How am I suppose to tell the others? I laid down and took a little nap in the woods.

note

I don't have any ideas right now so I will update when I have something.

Amnesia One shot

HICCUP POV:

My head hurt and I don't remember anything. I opened my eyes and saw doctors all around me.

"He is awake, we must tell Viggo" said a man.

I sat up and saw a doctor run off to go get this Viggo guy.

"You're lucky my brother wants you alive" said the man.

"Uh, who are you" I asked.

The man was shocked.

"What" asked the man.

"He probably lost all his memory. He hit his head pretty hard" said a doctor.

"Just perfect" said the man.

A doctor looked at me.

"Do you remember your name" asked a doctor.

I thought for a bit. I can't remember anything.

"No" I said.

The door opened and another doctor and another man entered.

"Nice to see are alive Hiccup" said the other man.

"Is, is that my name" I asked.

The other man was confused.

"The doctors said he might have forgot everything" said the first man.

"Well, that is to be expected. He hit his head pretty hard out there today. Perhaps it will come back with a few days of rest" said the second man.

"Possible, he might just need to see something familiar" said a doctor.

"Well for now there is lot's to catch him up on. To start I'm Viggo and he is my brother Ryker" said the second man.

"How do we know each other" I asked.

"You're married" said Ryker.

I was shocked by this. I'm, I have a husband?

"WHAT" I yelled.

"Come on brother, don't go giving the poor guy a heart attack as well. Hiccup, we aren't married. Now yes I'm gay but we never dated before. We are business partners" said Viggo.

"Oh, good" I said as I relaxed.

I am both relieved and disappointed. I do wonder if I'm in a relationship though.

"Now that Hiccup is awake is he allowed to leave" asked Viggo.

"Ya, but he should rest. So no dangerous stuff" said a doctor.

"I'll make sure he stays safe" said Viggo.

We left the hospital and started to walk around the village.

"Are you remembering anything yet" asked Viggo.

I looked around. Nothing is bringing any memories back.

"No, did I always have one leg" I asked.

"No, you lost it during a dragon attack a while back" said Viggo.

"Oh, what about my family" I asked.

"I'm not sure, we never really talked about your family. Probably because you ran away" said Viggo.

That's good to know.

"Where do I live" I asked.

"You travel a lot so you don't have a home on the island. You've been staying with me for the past few days. Of course we can always build you a home if you want to stay here" said Viggo.

"That's probably a good idea" I said.

We made it to Viggo's house.

"So I lost my leg in a dragon attack" I asked.

"Yes, we talked about this already" said Viggo.

"Then what about the dragons outside" I asked.

"Not all dragons are bad. It's the wild dragons you need to worry about. We trap dragons and force them to work for us" said Viggo.

"So we are mean to dragons" I said.

That can't be right. It feels wrong.

"It's not mean Hiccup, it's nature" said Viggo.

"But it's wrong. Why do we harm dragons" I asked.

Viggo walked up to me and wrapped his arm around me.

"Hiccup, do you lamb, fish, or fruit" asked Viggo.

I tried to think. I assume I do.

"I think so, but what does that have to do with anything" I asked.

"Animals and plants don't want to be eaten. It's survival of the fittest" said Viggo.

Note AGAIN,

Still no ideas but how about instead I make this a one shot book. Because I came up with a chapter called Amnesia which is in my drafts that I completely forgot about. 😂I don't promise a full story but I can do one shots and short ideas. Now I also had a dream that I could make into a section in here but I will have to make some changes from the dream. How do you feel about Viggo owning a dragon sanctuary like how Hiccup's mother did? For now I will give you the amnesia chapter so you have a chapter to enjoy.

What If Vigcup Idea

HICCUP POV AGE 15:

"HICCUP" Viggo yelled as he entered my house.

I opened my eyes and saw I fell asleep at my desk. I sat up and wiped the drool off my hand as Viggo came up to my room.

"Hey, when did you get here" I asked still a little tired.

"Noon" said Viggo.

"But it's only about 10" I said.

I looked out the window and saw it was actually sunset.

"I must of fell asleep longer then I thought" I said.

Viggo chuckled.

"Even cute boys like you need beauty sleep" said Viggo.

I blushed and stood up.

"Ya, anyway I'm pretty hungry so I'm going to make dinner. Do you want anything" I asked.

"Well besides you, how about we make lamb chops tonight" said Viggo.

"Sounds great" I said trying to hide the blush.

Viggo and I have been dating for a few months now. Everyone knows and is completely okay with it. Now Viggo and I haven't done the "stuff" yet but we do flirt a lot sometimes. I swear this guy likes making me blush.

Viggo and brother Ryker are the sons of the chief of the dragon hunters. They help the village in our fight against dragons. We give them the supply of dragons to hunt and they help protect us from wild dragons.

Viggo and I went down stairs to the kitchen. Viggo and I cook together sometimes. I love his cooking. Viggo is a master of a lot of things. How I managed to be so lucky with him as a boyfriend I have no idea.

"So, kill any dragons while I was gone" asked Viggo.

"No, I'm still working on it. I made a device that can throw a rope for me" I said.

"As lovely as that is you can't always have it on you. I should teach you how to kill dragons. You need the training" said Viggo.

"I know, it's just so hard. They breath fire. Plus at theirs rate with my bad fighting I will never be chief of Berk. At least not for long. Someone would be head me" I said.

Viggo grabbed my hand.

"Hiccup" said Viggo.

I looked at Viggo. His eyes are so perfect and sexy. They are the perfect color of brown.

"You need to have more faith in yourself" said Viggo.

"I know, it's just so hard. You're the only one who loves me" I said.

We went back to cooking.

"I'm sure that's not true. You have your father" said Viggo.

"I don't know, I think he is too busy being disappointed" I said.

"That doesn't mean he doesn't love you. Stoick is a chief which means he has high expectations for his son. Believe me I know what that is like. My mother still thinks me being gay is just a phase or wanting attention" said Viggo.

"Are your parents getting divorced because of us" I asked.

"No, they were always arguing. Even when I was five. I still remember that one night they were fighting while I had a cold so my brother came to keep me company" said Viggo.

We both have family issues. Viggo's parents if they ever loved each other don't anymore. When I first met his parents as his boyfriend Ryker was okay with it and said I might learn some dragon hunting from Viggo.

Their father was happy to see his son happy and even though we are both boys he has made it clear that he isn't ready for grandchildren yet. The mother however Viggo did warn me demands everyone is straight and there is no way a son of hers would ever be a gay.

Then Viggo introduced me as his boyfriend and his mother cried. All night she cried until she fell asleep and then the next morning decided that either it's a phase or I'm gender confused and must of been born a girl.

"Anyway on a more cheerful note I am here for a few weeks. Anything special we can do before I leave" asked Viggo.
